

LOCAL ITEMS.

Spring time, beautiful spring me.

F. E. Cone, of Richmond, was in town last week.

C. F. Graham, of Bristol, was among the business men in town last week.

S. S. Wall, of Pulaski, was in town last week.

D. H. Hull, of Roanoke, was business visitor to the Gap one day last week.

E. C. Whitaker, of Bristol, was in town the past week.

F. M. McDonald, a prominent business man of Wise, was in town last week.

John W. Head was over from Lexington one day last week.

W. M. Stover, of Knoxville, was registered at the Palmer House last Friday.

It will soon be time again to commence making preparations for the big Fourth of July Celebration at this place this year.

W. B. Claiborne, of Richmond, was among the guests at the Palmer House last Friday.

H. D. Coffey, of Lynchburg, was in town last week.

If you want what you want when you want it—go to Kelly's Drug Store.

Try a Golden Orangeade at the fountain—5c. Gilmer Drug Co.

W. T. McSpadden, a prominent traveling salesman was among the traveling men in town last week.

B. S. Agnew, of New York, was registered at the Palmer House last Thursday.

M. W. Gillesleeve, of Middleboro, was in town last week on business.

J. D. Broadwater, of Gate City, ex-sheriff of Scott county, was a business visitor to the Gap last week.

J. R. Dean, of Columbus, O., was registered at the Palmer House last Thursday.

J. M. Andrews, of Lynchburg, was a guest at the Palmer House one day last week.

Have you been getting Pure Olive Oil? If not—try a bottle of ours—satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Kelly's Drug Store.

J. G. Nesbitt was a visitor to Stonegap Sunday.

Attorney A. C. Anderson was a business visitor to Bristol last week.

J. A. Muncey, of Bluefield, was among the traveling men in town last week.

The farmers are now getting busy preparing to plant their spring crops.

Miss Minnie Fox returned this week from a visit of several weeks to Washington and Lynchburg.

Read the advertisement of the Powell's Valley Light and Power Company on the first page of this issue of the Post.

Try a Golden Orangeade, delicious and refreshing—5c. Gilmer Drug Co.

The revival meetings at the Southern Methodist Church are being continued this week, and much interest is being manifested in the services.

"Faysoux," a noted Hynotist and Telepathist, will give an exhibition of his skill in the school hall to-night and to-morrow night. Benefit of school fund and improvement fund.

The Woman's Home Mission Society of the Southern Methodist Church, will meet at the church on Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve refreshments along with their Easter articles at Polly's store today (Wed.)

Miss Rosa Bruce left for Wytheville Thursday to attend the funeral of Mr. Bruce's sister, Mrs. W. J. Umberger, who died at that place.

Easter Greeting—Big Stone Gap Souvenir, Birthday and Comic Cards. Kelly's Drug Store.

Rev. Robert McInturff, of Gate City, filled his regular appointment at this place last Sunday morning and night, preaching in the Episcopal church.

F. B. Caldwell, representing Caldwell-Sites and Company, of Bristol, was among the traveling men in town last week.

Misses Edna and Bevy Cox, two popular teachers in the public school at this place, spent Saturday shopping in Bristol.

Miss Ada Norvell spent Sunday visiting homefolks in Bristol.

J. J. Orr, of Dryden, spent Saturday in town on business.

Easter Candies—Huyler's and Nunnally's—from manufacture to you—received by express EVERY week. Kelly's Drug Store.

Dr. W. A. Baker, has moved into his new residence near the Southern Methodist Church.

Mrs. Greear, Miss Greear and Mrs. Barker, of Imboden, were shopping in the Gap last Wednesday.

Mrs. Grover Gilly, of Norton, was among the millinery shoppers in town last week.

Possess marvelous curative powers, removes all disorders, make health, strength and flesh. After taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea you'll realize the wonderful good it does. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets—Hamblen Bros.

I. B. Giles is winding up his affairs in the Gap and expects to remove his family from this place to Los Tamos, New Mexico, where they will reside in the future.

We understand that J. F. Skeen, brother to our popular circuit Judge, who recently went to New Mexico, has taken up land and expects to reside there in the future.

Pain, anywhere, can be quickly stopped by one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Pain always means congestion—unnatural blood pressure. Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets simply coax congested blood away from pain centers. These Tablets—known by druggists as Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—simply equalize the blood circulation and then pain always departs in 20 minutes. 20 Tablets 25 cents. Write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., for free package. Sold by J. W. Kelly.

W. H. Roberts, of Wise, who is engaged in the lumber business above East Stone Gap, was in town last week on business, and while here disposed of a large bill of lumber.

L. M. Bolton, of Bristol, one of the most prominent traveling men in this section, was among the "knights of the grip" in town last week.

It has set the whole world a-thinking. Upon it all Doctors, as one, agree;

The tonic all your friends are taking is, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. —Hamblen Bros.

We understand that a movement is on foot to build a first class pike road from Ben Hur to Jonesville, in Lee county. This will be a great convenience to the traveling public, as the present road is in bad condition.

Rev. John J. Lloyd, D. D., will hold Easter services at the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning and night. Dr. Lloyd is a most excellent preacher and the public are invited to attend these services.

Indications are that there will be quite a number of new buildings go up at this place this summer in addition to the fine new hotel building.

T. A. Garrison is building a small cottage near the residence property of J. L. Wells on Clinton Avenue.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea never fails to tone the stomach, purify the blood, regulate the kidneys, liver and bowels. The greatest spring tonic, makes and keeps you well. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.—Hamblen Bros.

Mrs. Dr. W. C. Moore returned to her home in Washington, D. C. the first of this week, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fox, at this place.

The wisacre ballists of this neck of the woods have done met and decided that the Coal Field League shot away its tail last year and that the field is now open to scrub nines from Gladeville, Norton, Big Stone Gap, Dorchester, Stonegap and East Stone Gap.—Wise News.

Melvin Garrison has installed a brick plant near the residence of J. P. Wolfe on Imboden Hill and is now busily engaged in making a good quality of brick.

Born on Monday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carter, a fine large boy. Sam has been stepping awfully high ever since.

A fine electric sign, showing the words, "Drugs, Cigars and Candies" has been placed at the entrance of J. W. Kelley's drug store on Wood Avenue which presents a handsome and effective appearance.

It is thought that most of the peach crop in this section has been killed, but other fruits have not been hurt much, and unless there is another cold snap there will be a good crop of fruit generally in this section.

W. H. Hylton returned one day last week from a two month's outing way down South in Dixie Land. He says that Southern Alabama looks good enough to him. He is up to his ears in stenographic work in Judge Skeen's symposium of Justice and equity.—Wise News.

W. G. Coutts, who has quite an extensive plumbing contract at Jonesville, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Rev. R. T. McDowell, of East Stone Gap, who closed last week a very successful revival meeting at Osaka, is assisting Rev. J. M. Carter in the revival services at this place.

FOR SALE—Early garden plants, consisting of tomatoes, cabbage, sweet potatoes, etc., at reasonable price.

T. F. WILLIAMS, Phone 131. Big Stone Gap, Va.

Will Allman and Melvin Carpenter, who were badly burned by the premature explosion of blasting powder at the reservoir several weeks ago, are rapidly recovering from their injuries and are able to be out again.

I. Kauffman, of Appalachia, has been billing the country with circulars for miles around announcing a mammoth salvage sale at his store, commencing on today and lasting sixteen days. See his supplement advertisement in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Skeen returned from Bristol Tuesday night, where Mr. Skeen had been to have his eyes treated.

Mrs. C. T. Ornder left last week for Louisville, where she will spend several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Vaughn.

J. B. Skeen, of Turkey Cove, was a business visitor to the Gap last Friday.

G. L. Pugh and T. B. Goodloe were over from Keokee Sunday.

NO PREACHING AT BAPTIST CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

On account of the meeting in progress at the Methodist Church there will be no preaching at the Baptist Church next Sunday. No meeting tonight. Sunday School will meet as usual at 10 a. m.

J. G. PULLIAM

FOR RENT.

A three-room house with water inside. Apply at this office.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church gave a most delightful tea at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Prescott, on Poplar Hill on last Friday night. The occasion was well patronized and was quite a success, both socially and financially. An entrance fee of fifteen cents was charged at the door, and refreshments, consisting of tea, ice cream, cake and candies were served, for which a small charge was made. Some fine cakes were auctioned off by "Uncle" Jack Goodloe, (the bad 'un) which went at a good price. Mr. and Mrs. Prescott and the ladies of the Presbyterian Church know how to entertain and make every one feel at home.

Weak women get prompt and lasting help by using Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories, with full information how to proceed are interestingly told of in my book "No. 4 For Women." The book and strictly confidential medical advice is entirely free. Simply write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., for my book No. 4. Sold by J. W. Kelly.

LARGE STOCK.

We now have the largest and most complete stock of merchandise we have ever carried. Our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, hats and gents furnishings is just as complete as it can be. Call and examine our goods and prices. Everything first-class and up-to-date.

GOODLOE BROTHERS,

BIG STONE GAP, VA.

The Industrial Coal Company is the name of the most recent organization of its kind in this city. Mr. C. M. Woodbury is president of the company. Headquarters will be in Middleboro. The Industrial Coal Company will do a general business, and will be sales agent for the Mingo Coal & Coke Company.—Middleboro News.

He Got What He Needed. "Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Parthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then that my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at J. W. Kelly's drug store. 50c.

If the present rate of emigration continues much longer, our community will soon be depopulated. Rev. W. S. Neff and family, Mrs. A. C. McNeil, Miss Alice Neff and J. Bert Bishop all left Monday night for New Mexico, where they will permanently locate for the future. A. C. McNeil will join Mrs. McNeil later. Irvine McDowell is enthused with the country. He will return the latter part of the summer for his family. We are glad this sturdy little band has found a land that flows with milk and honey in which to cast their lots.—Towel Correspondent to the Jonesville Star.

A Twenty Year Sentence. "I have just completed a twenty year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woodover, of LeRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c at J. W. Kelly's drug store.

Messrs A. L. and C. R. Witt have bought the business of the Big Stone Gap Manufacturing Company from W. W. Taylor & Sons and will conduct the same. This company makes all kinds of mattresses, does upholstery and a general business in this line. They have secured quarters in the Collier building opposite Hamblen Brother's store. These young men are enterprising and will, no doubt, make a success of the work. Big Stone Gap is an ideal location for an enterprise of this kind.

NO LONGER A SECRET.

A rumor has been in circulation for the past several days to the effect that a secret wedding occurred here recently, and at last the truthfulness of the report has been confirmed. The bride of this wedding was Miss Virginia, the youngest daughter of Honorable W. K. Donnelly, of this city, and the groom was Shaler Gilly, of Big Stone Gap, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Paul at the M. E. Church parsonage, Sunday, Feb. 9. The best wishes of many friends and relatives are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gilly as they begin their voyage on the sea of life.—Mountain City (Tenn.) Tomahawk.

Mr. Gilly arrived home last week and his wife came Tuesday night. The marriage was a surprise to the many friends of Mr. Gilly here, not even the homefolks knew of the event, but all join with us in wishing him and his popular bride a happy married life together.

NOTICE.

To all persons whom it may concern: I, Ralph P. Goins, hereby give notice that I have withdrawn from the partnership heretofore existing between S. L. Thaxton, John J. Williams and myself, under the firm name and style of United Business Club, doing business at Big Stone Gap, Wise County, Virginia; that I have no claim on any of the personal effects belonging to the said club, and will not hereafter be responsible for any liability incurred by it. This March 23rd, 1908. RALPH P. GOINS.

Base Ball and Tennis Goods.

"Spalding, Wright and Ditson's," the only recognized leaders of high grade goods—One price to every one.

Paints, Varnishes, Brushes, Jap-a-lac and Enamels.

Stationery of every description. See a line of Hurlbut and Whiting's Box Papers. Everything new, and only the best of the new.

Kelly's Drug Store.

THE CORNER GROCERY

has been moved into permanent quarters on the corner of Fifth street and Wood avenue opposite old stand and will be pleased to fill your wants for anything you may need in new and fresh in staple and fancy groceries and early vegetables.

A. KELLY MANN

TELEPHONE NO. 127.

NYAL'S Spring Sarsaparilla

Purifies the blood, cleanses and invigorates the entire system. The best Spring Tonic. Just what you need now. Ask about it. Large Bottles $1.00.

Gilmer Drug Co.

The Leading Druggists.

A BIG SUCCESS.

Our Millinery Opening has proven a success beyond our expectations, and to accommodate our patrons we have replaced many of our select styles and are in position to give the very best in head wear for ladies.

Come in and see our special line of this season's Easter Hats.

J. M. Willis & Company,

Big Stone Gap, Virginia.

Now is the Time to have the baby's picture taken. Don't put it off, for soon the little one will have outgrown many of its cute ways and regret of your action will haunt you when memory in her caprices, reverts to your error.

My patrons are my best recommendation. Ask 'em about my work and business method

G. D. JENKINS, THE PHOTOGRAPHER

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA.

CENTRAL HOTEL.

MRS. N. M. RODENHICER, Proprietress. Rates, $2.00 per day. Sample room free. Located Near the L. & N. Depot. Big Stone Gap, Virginia.